EVERYTHING READY FOR WORLD SERIES CONTEST TUESDAY

RUBE MARQUARD WILL PROBABLY PITCH FOR BROOKLYN IN FIRST GAME

THE DOPESTERS HAVE FIGURED OUT CLEVELAND WILL START WITH BAGBY

HENRY FARREL (United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 4.—Uncle Wilbert Robinson, National League champion, held the fort alone today in Flatbush, contrary to the custom of previous years, when both halves of the world series cast its advance warning up stunts before a free house on the eve of the battle. Tris Speaker passed up the chance of scouting on the enemy's camp and kept the American League champions at home.

The Indians are not due until tomorrow.

"Everything is all ready," Chas. H. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club, said today.

The seats were purchased in advance and practically all distributed. The field has been shampooed and combed. Everything is complete and the players are standing by. Everything is all set.

Mayor J. Hylan will toss out the first ball tomorrow, and the front box will be occupied by a host of prominent state, city, military, naval and political personages. The chorus of song plugging singers which kept the fans quiet in Cincinnati and Chicago last year will not be included in the ticket at Flatbush. The only questionable feat today was the pitcher that will try out the all important first game.

No word has been forthcoming from Cleveland and Manager Robinson dismisses the curious with the curt but polite "It all depends."

Manager Robinson, however, is known to have leaned toward the southpaws due to the large number of Indians who bat from the near side of the plate.

If the southpaw is decided upon by the Brooklyn board of strategy, which according to Robby's idea, includes all his players, then Rube Marquard, who has pitched in four series, likely will meet the call.

Robinson said Rube would go to the mound sure if he shows anything like the stuff he had in a real game with the Giants.

Grimes looked to be the next candidate for the pitcher's role.

Of the seventy-five per cent for contesting players sixty per cent goes to the winner and forty per cent to the loser.

26 SOVIET DIVISIONS DESTROYED—STORES OF ALL KINDS ARE DISCARDED

(United Press)

London, Oct. 4.—Enemies of bolshevists were crashing through the soviet armies on two fronts today.

Reports from the Scandinavian countries indicated Russian affairs were in a turmoil with strikes and hunger adding to the difficulty of soviet rule.

A report from Warsaw today said Polish troops were also unhampered in their advance eastward. The communists said Polish troops had occupied the city of Novigrodek while on either side the line had advanced from fifty to one hundred miles with the bolsheviki suffering heavy losses.

Twenty-six soviet divisions were destroyed, according to the statement, and booty falling to Polish troops reached an enormous total. Impediments of all sorts were discarded by Russian troops, clothing, weapons and ammunition falling to the pursuers.

The commission contends it is not in its power to grant higher fares because of the Minnesota law establishing a maximum passenger fare of two cents per mile.

MINNESOTA CENSUS EXCEEDS 2,379,883

GOVERNMENT FIGURES SHOW 303,175 MORE PEOPLE IN STATE THAN IN 1910

Washington, Oct. 4.—Minnesota's 1920 population exceeds 2,379,883, according to official figures given out by the federal census bureau, which is complete with the exception of Olmstead county. This is a population gain of 14.6 per cent over the 1910 census which gave the state 2,075,708. Olmstead's 1910 population of 22,497 is used to obtain the 1920 total.

Minnesota was organized as a territory in 1849 and appears in the federal census reports for the first time in 1850. During the decade of 1850-1860 its population increased from 6,977 to 172,923, and during the 30 year 1860-1890, the growth continued at a rapid rate. For each succeeding decade during this period the absolute increase was greater, although the percentage increases declined from 155.6 to 67.8. In the decade 1890-1900 the percentage increase dropped to 33.7 and in the following decade to 18.5, the absolute increases as well as the rate showing a decline at the censuses of 1900 and 1910.

Most of the counties in the state show gains ranging from 6.6 per cent in Sibley county to 110.2 per cent in Koochiching county. Nine of the counties, whose population has been announced officially, show losses. They were generally small, however, both numerically and in percentage. Traverse county, for instance, lost 1.3 per cent, while Washington county, in which the city of Stillwater is located, lost 8.7 per cent. The numerical loss in Washington county was quite substantial. There were 2,252 fewer people in the county this year than there were 10 years ago.

Hennepin county shows the largest gain, 81,923, of any in the state. The percentage of gain in Hennepin was 24.6. St. Louis county is next in numerical gain with 43,117, or 26.4 per cent, and Ramsey ranks third, with 29,776 persons, or 9.3 per cent gain.

CENSUS FIGURES

Washington, Oct. 4.—The census bureau today announced the following 1920 population figures:

City of New York corrected figures, 5,620,048, an increase of 853,165, or 17 per cent. The population was previously announced as 5,621,151.

Harding added he has been greatly pleased with the speeches of Senator Borah and said he knew he would be pleased just as much by those he will make in the future. Harding said he was assured Borah would continue speaking.

COX AT HOME FROM TRIP WEST

BELIEVES HIS CAMPAIGN HAS GAINED FROM HIS MONTH'S TRIP

(United Press)

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 4.—Confident his campaign has gained a great momentum as a result of his one month's tour of the west, Governor Cox today was planning to take a brief rest before resuming his fight in the middle west and east.

Virtually every democratic leader who met him yesterday enroute from St. Louis here talked of a "reaction" that has commenced throughout the country within the last few weeks and of the sentiment that is in his favor. As a result of his western tour Cox is pinning hope of victory on the league issue and progressive vote. On every one of his speeches he has made he presented the league of nations as the only definite plan for preventing war and said that he was surprised with the response. Toward the end of his trip he devoted nearly all of his speeches to the league.

Governor Cox today was to meet a delegation of the league of women voters headed by Mrs. Maude Wood Park. Tomorrow he expects to go to Columbus and Wednesday night he will start an invasion of Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana and Illinois.

RUSSIAN RED ARRESTED FOR WALL STREET EXPLOSION

ARREST WAS MADE AT PITTSBURGH—LEFT NEW YORK ON MORNING OF EXPLOSION

SEVERAL OTHER ARRESTS WILL BE MADE DURING DAY AT BROOKLYN

(United Press)

New York, Oct. 4.—A number of arrests were expected in Brooklyn today in connection with the Wall street explosion plot as a result of disclosures made after the seizure in Pittsburgh last night of Florian Zelenska, 29, a Russian.

A suit case containing dynamite percussion caps and fuses, and a quantity of radical literature were found in the room where Zelenska was arrested after a struggle, according to reports here today.

Federal agents located his former rooming place in Brooklyn and discovered he left there between ten and eleven o'clock in the morning on the day of the explosion in Wall street—two weeks ago last Thursday—carrying a large yellow bag. The bomb was set off at noon. It was also learned he had been an employee of an explosive company about two years ago.

While federal agents refused to discuss the case in detail it was intimated that Zelenska's arrest had furnished a "lead" which would result in several other men being taken into custody within a few hours.

Have Enough Dynamite to Destroy Cities

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 4.—Florian Zelenska, of Brooklyn, today told police they had enough dynamite secreted in New York to blow up the whole town.

Definite clues today may lead to the arrest of those responsible for the Wall street explosion, believed by police to be unearthed through the arrest of Zelenska. Police said he admitted he was in Brooklyn at the time of the explosion.

Six sticks of dynamite, about twenty-five feet of fuse, and a number of detonating caps were found in Zelenska's suit case when he was arrested.

After a preliminary hearing before police magistrates today, Zelenska will be turned over to government authorities.

Railroads Try to Increase Fare
St. Paul, Oct. 4.—Railroads operating in Minnesota renewed their efforts or a 3.6 cent passenger fare here today.

At a hearing called by the Interstate Commerce Commission, railroad executives were to air their grievances against the ruling of the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse commission that the Minnesota 2 cent maximum fare law is operative. An injunction in district court continued in effect the 3 cent fare law under the Esch-Cummins act temporarily. A permanent injunction has been asked. The inter-state passenger fare is 3.6 cents. Railroads insist a lower rate intra-state would be discriminatory and are preparing to fight to a finish. The interstate commerce commission is expected to hold that a lower intra-state rate would be discriminatory in many cases and may make a special ruling in great detail to remove such discrimination as appears from the testimony submitted.

The next session of the state legislature probably will be asked to remove the 2 cent maximum passenger fare law.

The New Farm Hand-Gasoline Power

THE average ownership of automobiles for 1919 was one car to every 14 persons in the United States. But in making this average, the states outside the Middle West (including the states of the east, with their congested city traffic) showed but one car for every 19 persons.

The states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) such as Kansas, showing one automobile for every 8.9 persons; Iowa with a car for every 7.8 persons, or South Dakota, with a machine for every 8.3 persons—raised the national average.

The people of the Middle West—preeminently the farming section of the nation—own about one-half the motor cars of the country. The major portion—almost 65% of these Middle Western cars are farmer-owned. Investigation has further proved that over 75% of the Middle Western farmers bought their cars, not for pleasure, but for business.

Gasoline-power is the new hired hand on the farm. To maintain the continuous operation of this power is one of the leading services rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

To increase the nation's food-supply, the farmer must depend upon his gasoline supply. Someone must continually anticipate production difficulties, overcome transportation delays, so that his tractor and his truck and his car may operate whenever the plowing, cultivating, seeding, harvesting, housing or marketing of his crops must be done.

It was to insure dependability in supply of petroleum products to the consumer as well as to lower their prices, that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) built up its "cycle of service", carrying its products from the refinery direct to the consumer. All savings effected through this efficiency in organization are passed on by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to the consumers of its products.

Date Interesting to Women.
The first woman's rights convention met at Seneca Falls, N. Y., July 19, 1848, and lasted two days. The leader of the gathering was Lucretia Mott, the Quakeress, and her leading assistant was Elizabeth Cady Stanton. This date is regarded as the greatest anniversary of the woman's suffrage movement in America.

Vague Description.
Little Betty running from a luncheon where some very dainty sandwiches were served said: "Mother dear, will you make some of those nice little sandwiches for me some day without any bark on?"

MUSICAL CLUB OPENS ITS SEASON

First Meeting Held at the New Park Theatre, President Mrs. D. M. Clark Hostess

REVIEW OF PROGRAM GIVEN

Announced that Club's First Concert Will be Given at Park Theatre on October 24

Many things contributed to the success of the first meeting of the Brainerd Musical Club, Saturday afternoon at the Park Theatre. The large membership, as indicated by a well-filled parquet, the beautiful stage setting, the pretty gowns of the dancers and the appreciation of the audience, all created an atmosphere, suited to bring out the very best talents of the entertainers. Mrs. Clyde Burnett expressed the feeling of the audience when she said that Brainerd was very proud of the fact that three of the four young ladies on the program Miss Nitterauer, Miss Clark and Miss Koop, the accompanist, were home girls who were making a success in their professions, and doubtless Duluth was equally proud of Dorothy Crosby. Duluth certainly should be, for Miss Crosby's work shows careful training and study, as well as natural ability. She was particularly happy in "Moment Musical."

Miss Dorothy Crosby
Duluth Girl Who Took Part in Program of Brainerd Musical Club

Miss Marie Clark's best work was in the interpretation of the "firtations" peasant girl who was in love with the Prince and always danced for him, if he was in the audience. This dance was named "Giselle."

Miss Gladys Nitterauer proved her ability to interpret the work of both classic and modern composers. Her playing of the Grieg Concerto was masterful. It is a test of both the interpretative and the technical powers of a performer.

The president of the club, Mrs. D. M. Clark, greeted new and old members in a few well chosen words, and announced the date of the club's first concert, which will be by a young prima donna of the Chicago Opera, Myrna Sharlow, a lyric soprano of great promise. This concert will be on Sunday afternoon, October 24, at the New Park Theatre.

BENEFIT ENTERTAINMENT

(Contributed)

It seems to be popular just now to attack The League of Women Voters. The extreme partisans do not like it for fear it will keep the women from entering wholeheartedly into party politics, the Radicals fear that it is an organization of "privileged" women, the federated club women fear that it will make sad in-roads into their ranks, and politicians generally fear the power of this organization to control legislation.

This situation reminds one of the story of the man who was going through a pear orchard looking for the best pears. He didn't look at the fruit at all, but kept his eyes fixed on the ground. When he came to the tree that had the most clubs under it, he stopped, for he knew that there he would find the sweetest pears.

The leaders in the fight for suffrage knew that the ballot would do women little good unless they held together and continued their fight for welfare legislation. They knew, also, that extreme partizanship usually spells extreme prejudice, and they had been fighting blind prejudice too long to wish their followers to become mired in this morass of stubborn ignorance. They believed that a careful weighing of issue, instead of prejudice, should determine party allegiance. They realized that the only way to accomplish anything in a legislative way was to concentrate on a few bills, prepared by experts. With this in view, they appointed eight committees of experts.

ALICE ROOSEVELT LONGWORTH, A CAMPAIGN ORATOR

Now that women have the vote, Alice Roosevelt Longworth will be on a speaking tour for Senator Harding. The "divine Alice" hasn't changed much since the days when she was in the White House with her father, Colonel Roosevelt.

Mrs. Raymond Robbins (who was to have spoken for the Republican party in Brainerd, but who was transferred to Ohio) was appointed chairman of the committee on "Women in Industry". She was appointed to this position because she had done more to organize and protect working girls than any other woman in America. She understands the needs and the peculiar problems of the factory girl better than any one else and is therefore better fitted to propose helpful legislation in their behalf.

The chairman of the committee on "Unification of Laws concerning the Civil Status of Women" is one of the best known woman lawyers in this country. And so one might go on through the list.

The practical result should be that when women want anything through legislation, they will bring it before the proper committee of The League of Women Voters. If this committee approves, it will prepare the bill, and get some friend among the congressmen to introduce it. In other words, the League should be the clearing house of legislation affecting woman, children and the home.

It would certainly be a great relief to congressmen to have all such legislation prepared by experts, after careful elimination of all but the most essential measures.

That the League is not financed by "big business" is proved by the fact that in this country and in many others, entertainments and teas are resorted to in order to make up the county quota to pay organization expenses. For that purpose, the Brainerd League of Women Voters will get a percentage of the proceeds of the moving picture film "The Jinx" which is to be held at the Best theatre next Thursday and Friday, with a matinee Friday afternoon. This is a film that will attract both young and old and is said to be a very popular picture.

If you want to see a good picture, and incidentally help one of the most efficient welfare organizations that was ever conceived, buy a ticket to "The Jinx". Mrs. Clyde Burnett has charge of the ticket sale.

TEN BILLIONS IN RATS

The Public Health Service at Washington estimates that in food alone it costs the people of the United States one cent a day apiece to maintain the rat population. Anyone who thinks a cent a day doesn't amount to anything should do a little figuring. It comes to $3.65 a year apiece, or nearly $400,000,000 a year for the whole nation. And that sum, be it noted, represents the interest on about $10,000,000,000 of government bonds, which in turn is about half the nation's net war debt.

Ten billion dollars is a good deal of money to have invested in rats. The rats are not worth it. Moreover, they do a great deal of collateral damage, by gnawing holes in buildings, destroying and defiling property of various kinds, starting fires and spreading disease. They are recognized nowadays as the chief carriers of bubonic plague. The avoidance of that dreaded disease is simple—no rats, no plague.

Kansas has been having a rat-killing week, in the interest of health and food conservation. The expectation has been that in a thorough campaign for extermination of the rodents the state could make as much as all its public expenses amount to. There ought to be a rat-killing week in every state, particularly the agricultural and seaboard states.

Preventive measures are just as important as the killing, for unless continually warded off the rats will come back. The Public Health Service is working on standard plans for rat-proofing dwellings, business buildings, farm buildings and wharves. As long as there are rats, such plans ought to be considered in constructing any kind of building they are likely to infest.

THE ELECTRIC WARSHIP

The electrically propelled battleship is a mechanical success. With this an acknowledged fact, the world may be said to be entering an electrical epoch in naval construction, electricity superseding steam as steam superseded the sail and the sail the sweep.

Two years ago the battleship New Mexico was completed and announced as the first vessel of its kind to be propelled and operated entirely by electricity. Steam experts doubted the practicality of the idea and predicted a speedy reversion to the steam-driven type. On the contrary, two years of constant service have vindicated the best hopes of the electrical engineers who fostered the idea and worked out the plans. The New Mexico has been operating for all this time in close

Though she has had no actual battle experience, there is no doubt of her fitness, as she answers all the requirements of speed and flexibility.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Best Theatre Today

It will be a hard blow to several thousand young ladies, admirers of Charles Clary, one of the featured players of the screen, to know that this happy-go-lucky young star is a "desert rat," real and inveterate.

The unabridged truth is that Clary manages to sneak away between pictures at Universal City; saddles a peck train of burros with the approved "diamond hitch;" pulls a battered sombrero over his eyes, fills a few canteens and strikes out into the desert. Clary says he is prospecting.

Perhaps he is, for after a hard day's work traveling in the foothill country he hacks away at the unyielding adobe soil for traces of ore or washes the gravel of the mountain streams for the precious metal of life, love and "licker." He likes prospecting, he says, because it is less expensive than poker and the chances are about the same. However, he has had his little encouraging moments. He once found a nugget in Alaska.

Clary, together with Ora Carey, the star, and Forrest Stanley, plays a leading role in "Under Suspicion," a new semi-comedy crook drama, which will begin at the Best theatre today.

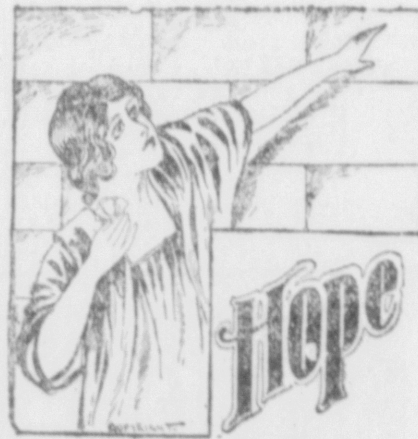

New Park Today and Tomorrow

A complete assortment of rural types, some perfectly harmless, some capable of considerable villainy, some exceedingly lovable, most of them humorous and all of them interesting and true to life, are included in the cast of "Homespun Folks," the big

Thomas H. Ince-Associated Producers' special production, which is to be featured at the New Park theatre today and tomorrow.

"Homespun Folks" is a picture that sends thrills up and down the spine, tickles the funny bone, stirs up righteous indignation and plays on the heartstrings. All of the elements that go toward the making of a cinema success are present and are so skillfully blended, the climaxes so powerfully built up and the comedy reliefs so cleverly placed that there is never an instant in which the story palls or loses interest.

An all-star cast, in which Lloyd Hughes is featured, has been ably directed by John Griffith Wray, under the personal supervision of Thomas H. Ince. The story was written by Julien Josephson. Henry Sharp handled the photography.

Charles C. Sheers, editor of the Akeley Herald-Tribune, has joined the order of "High Flyers". He took to an aeroplane like a duck to water. The Dispatch man took his high flight on October 10 last year, was up in the air thirty minutes and got everything from straight flying to the Immelman turn, looped the loop four times, flew upside down, was in a tail spin and wound up with a pose dive. Lieut. Bullock turned loose everything he had and the Dispatch man stayed right with him to the end. Whereas Scheers said straight flying gave a man a sensation of having a million dollars in his vest pocket, the tail spin and nose dive made the Dispatch man feel like 30 cents.

LOCAL ROADS TO BENEFIT BY PLAN

Crow Wing County Will Gain Road Funds Through Adoption of Amendment No. 1

Crow Wing to Gain Nearly $88,402 For Use on Lateral Roads Without Increased Taxes

Crow Wing county roads, like those in many other counties, are growing gradually poorer in spite of recent increases in road taxes.

Good Roads Amendment No. 1 is designed to solve the problem of better maintaining and improving roads without further increasing taxes or issuing road bonds as is being done in many states. The plan will accomplish this, it is explained, mainly by relieving the counties of the upkeep of main highways and placing that heavy expense on the motor traffic which is rapidly increasing road requirements. Friends of the plan present 1920 and 1921 comparisons furnished by the state highway department in support of their claims.

Shows Local Gains
There are 628 miles of public roads in this county. Road money this year includes $89,946 of county and $66,445 of town taxes; $21,247 of state and $120,000 of federal aid. The grand total is $287,637 and approximately $198,395 of it is being spent upon the trunk highways which are to be taken over by the state.

Thus only $89,242 now is being spent on the local roads.

Under Amendment No. 1, however, there will be available next year about $177,644, against the $89,242 figure this year—a gain of $88,402 without issuing any bonds.

$15,000,000 for Local Roads
To the larger 1921 fund, county taxes will yield $90,000, township taxes $65,000, and the state aid will add probably $21,247 as this year. The county-town roads will measure 531 miles, with trunk highways taken over by the state.

Crow Wing county will have gained nearly $88,402 for use on the lateral or farmer roads, without increases in road taxes or issuing road bonds.

Altogether, Minnesota road funds will aggregate $25,000,000 next year, against less than $17,000,000 this year, and steadily increasing amounts will be provided in succeeding years under the proposed plan. The state will have about $10,000,000 a year for the trunk roads and the counties and towns more than $15,000,000 every year for local roads exclusively.

The benefits to the counties and towns at once are apparent from the big gain in funds actually available, friends of the proposal maintain, and every road will be made a good road in short order.

Increases Cash Gifts
Engineers report that the state by spending $10,000,000 a year during the next six years can properly grade, drain and gravel the entire 7,000 mile state system and also hard-surface more than 1,500 miles of those carrying the heaviest traffic. It will be obliged first to put and keep every mile of the system in good condition, and then, as funds permit and according to traffic demands, to use the surplus each year for permanent betterments.

Crow Wing county already is receiving $150,247 of state and federal aid. Advocates of Good Roads Amendment No. 1 claim that the new plan will on the average double this gift from the outside. They explain that the proposal "looks too good to be true" to some citizens, but recall that the same applied to the Bob Dunn 1-mill tax amendment. The fact is that all additional funds will come from higher motor vehicle license and federal aid, and that the automobile and truck owners generally favor it.

Brainerd Musicians Local 517 will have an important meeting Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the old court house.

In a paragraph full of prose-poetic effusions, if one may use such a term, the Elk's committee announces that summer with its joy and sunshine has given way to those melancholy days that bring us the call of duty.

Granted that summer has slipped away and the thermometer actually registered 68 above on Sunday and cars and tires are coming down in price and the October touring is still fine—these are not the melancholy days and to get down to real facts, there are no melancholy days on the calendar of this grand and glorious state of Minnesota. Neither are there any on the Elks calendar.

Brainerd Lodge No. 615 will inaugurate its fall season with a regular old-time session on Thursday evening, Oct. 7, and there will be such a crowd there that it was found necessary to rent Citizens State bank hall for the occasion. The committees have worked diligently to make this a meeting long to be remembered.

George W. Moody, for 27 years court reporter of the district court, has resigned his position Oct. 1 and has been succeeded by E. J. Egan of Chicago.

Mr. Moody was eight years reporter for the late Judge G. W. Holland and served 19 years for Judge W. S. McClenahan. For over a quarter of a century Moody's pencil took down court proceedings ranging from timber to iron claims, murder trials, civil suits, etc., and the opinions and court proceedings, he has typewritten fill reams and reams.

Mr. and Mrs. Moody will spend several months on a vacation trip in California. As to future prospects Mr. Moody made no statement, but they will retain their residence in Brainerd. Their daughter, Miss Ruth Moody, is teaching in Porto Rico.

In the legal world the friends of Mr. Moody were legion and many will regret to see him leave the desk where he presided and took down the court proceedings. During his long period of service Mr. Moody saw the country unfold from pioneer days to present times and the various cases recorded reflect the business world, the vicissitudes of life, ranging from the dim past to the present.

His successor E. J. Egan, a graduate of a business college and short-hand school and has had four years practice in Chicago court work, where testimony is taken one day and the transcribed notes are placed on the lawyer's table at the next morning's session of court.

CONGRESS' ERROR STOPS PROJECTS

WATER POWER DEVELOPMENT IS AT A STANDSTILL FOR LACK OF SUFFICIENT FUNDS.

COMMISSION IS HELPLESS

Controller of Treasury Rules in Effect
That It Cannot Hire Anyone to Do Anything, Hence Licenses Cannot Be Issued.

By JAMES P. HORNADAY.

Washington.—Water power development under the legislation enacted by congress last spring is practically at a standstill because the legislative body neglected to provide the water power commission with sufficient funds, and for the further reason that it made it impossible to issue permits by prescribing certain conditions which are impossible of fulfillment, it is asserted.

Rapid development of the water power of the country was promised under this legislation. There was created a water power commission consisting of the secretary of war, the secretary of agriculture and the secretary of the interior. Congress appropriated $100,000 for the use of the commission, and then prescribed, according to a ruling made by the controller of the treasury, that this money could be expended for two salaries only, the executive secretary and the engineer officer. The controller held that the work of the commission must be performed by and through the departments of war, interior and agriculture and their personnel.

This meant that although the commission might appoint an executive secretary, which it has done, it must borrow whatever clerical or technical assistants it might need for its manifold duties, and that it could spend its $100,000 to pay the executive secretary of the interior. Congress appropriated in the purchase of stationery and other working utensils.

Cannot Hire Anything Done.
Under the interpretation of the legislation made by the controller of the treasury, the commission cannot hire anyone to do anything. The destructiveness of this restriction is illustrated by the knowledge that some of the duties imposed on the commission, like the institution of an accounting system, are of such a character that outside help must be employed if they are to be performed.

The legislation specifically provides that the commission shall prescribe a method of accounting which the licensees must follow, and must make a survey for every project for which an application for a permit is made. It develops that the commission cannot make surveys because it has neither the men nor the money with which to make them, and that it cannot devise an accounting system because it has no accountants.

The water power commission has received applications for permits to develop power from every section of the country. All it can do at this time, it asserts, is to notify applicants that their applications cannot be taken up until congress straightens out the legislation. It is taken for granted that the legislative body will do this early in the December session.

Great Projects Held Up.
In California particularly, where the shortage of electric power is acute, one concern alone has signified a willingness to spend a million dollars a month in construction if allowed to develop power plants on government land in accordance with the terms of the leasing law. Another application is for permission to make use of the extensive water power in Michigan.

The object of the water power legislation was to render available for common use something like sixty million horse power going to waste on the streams of the country. Up to this time applications for permits to develop two million horse power have been made to the commission.

It is one of the anomalies of water power legislation that the law has provided more money for a subordinate body than for the superior body. The act appropriates $125,000 for the uses of the geological survey in investigating the so-called tying-in plan so warmly advocated by Franklin K. Lane. The system here proposed is of the greatest importance to the whole country. Briefly stated, the object of the plan is to render available for common use the facilities of present and future steam and water electricity plants whereby the water power plants would be used at 100 per cent efficiency to carry the main load of current and the steam plants be utilized to carry the peak load, as during the rush hours on an electric street railway system.

The system would be analogous to the usage of the waters of a lake supplying power through streams flowing out of it, the whole to form a common reservoir and to afford an automatic distribution of power where most needed without placing undue demand or strain upon any particular station. One result probably would be to cause eventually the scrapping of many inferior plants and the greater development of the central electric plants, and, of course, the substitution in many cases of the cheaper electric for the costlier steam power.

OHIO STADIUM TO SEAT 63,000 PEOPLE

(By United Press)

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 4.—The Ohio Stadium, to cost $1,000,000 and seat 63,000 persons, will be ready in time for 1922 football games, it was believed today. Actual excavation for the giant home of Ohio State University's athletic teams will begin October 11, during the university's semi-centennial week.

The structure will be the largest amphitheatre in America. Plans announced recently by the stadium committee disclosed details of the big building that will be located in the centre of the university's new athletic field of 92 acres. Among the salient facts set forth are:

The distance around the U-shaped structure will be more than a third of a mile;

Height will be 101 feet and contain 87 arches 13 feet high and 56 feet wide, with a main arch 72 feet wide and 86 feet high.

Will consist of two tiers of seats, accommodating 42,000 spectators in lower tiers and 21,000 in upper;

There will be room for 2,000 more persons than the Yale bowl seats; It will contain 56 stairways and 112 aisles, permitting the stadium to be emptied in seven minutes.

Tickets of admission will be accepted at 86 entrances;

Will require 40,000 cubic yards of concrete and 4,000 tons of steel.

Arena will cover 150,000 square feet.

Under seating space there will be large gymnasium for indoor meets, drills, commencement exercises and expositions, as well as locker and dressing rooms and baths.

Solicitation of funds to build the stadium will begin a week after the first spadeful of dirt has been turned. All contributors will see their names inscribed on bronze tablets in various parts of the structure.

Poles and Lithuanians Conclude Armistice

(United Press)

London, Oct. 4.—Reuter dispatches from Warsaw today said that Poland and Lithuania had concluded an armistice.

Announcement of such an agreement had been expected in view of the fact that Poland had discontinued her efforts to seize Vilna, the Lithuanian capital. Polish troops were within striking distance of Vilna but halted while the main offensive further south was directed to the east against the bolsheviks.

Brotherhood Among Men.

In every period and in every society there exists an understanding of the meaning of life which represents the highest level to which the men of that society have attained—an understanding defining the highest good at which that society aims. The religious perception of our time, in its widest application, is the consciousness that our well-being, both material and spiritual, lies in the growth of brotherhood among all men—in their loving harmony one with another.—Tolstoy.

Mystery Solved.

A moving picture bears the interrogation title, "Whom am I?" Easy! You're Cyril.—Boston Transcript.

First Enthusiasm Gone.

Mariette was delighted when a small brother arrived at her home. However, after some weeks she began to think he was somewhat of a care, and one day when her mother told her to rock his cradle, she looked at him with disdain and remarked, "Oh, you little bothering thing!"

First English Coin.

It is a common error to suppose that the first English coin was made of copper. It was made of gold, about A. D. 460, and is believed to have been struck in celebration of the victory of Hengist, the overlord of the ten provincial chiefs in southern Britain, over the Saxon invaders.

Mummies Should Be Confined.

A professor of bacteriology in the Northwestern university found that mummies are a source of germ incubation, and death and destruction is likely to lurk in the household that has a mummy in its bric-a-brac department. Keep your dummies incased.

London, Oct. 4.—Lord Mayor MacSwiney was almost completely exhausted today, the fifty-third day of his hunger strike.

Life's Preparation for Death.

Life is more important than death. In fact, the work of death can only be safely done in life. The practical truth is that which touches us at once, the most sober and solemn view of life, that every single thing we do is actually making death either harder or easier.—Faber.
